

PROFILE

MS ADITI S DOEGAR

Assistant Professor

Department of Journalism and Mass Communication

Email: aditi303@yahoo.co.in

Qualification:

- NET (2020)
- MA (Journalism and Mass Communication)
- MA (Economics)
- Bachelor of Arts (with Economics Honours)

Ms Doegar commands strong fundamentals of journalism, having worked with UNI and NewsX. Her writings appear in several online news portals. Her style of teaching involves a balanced mix of insightful interaction and dissemination of practical wisdom. She promotes critical thinking and lively discussion among students to enable learning beyond prescribed syllabus.

She aspires to contribute to meaningful media and communication research, while carving new dimensions in the field. Her areas of focus include environment, media education & research, and media management.

With a background in economics, she blends avenues of macroeconomics and public policy matters into a unique style of journalism.

Her focus during the course delivery is to create an ecosystem of learning through content, communication and collaboration among the students.

Her vision is to inculcate the sense of journalism among her students and equip them with the tools to create impactful content in their own field of expertise.